THE MOMENT THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING

Bharath Akira

Founder & Creative Director – Jagali Artspace

What began as a performer's journey—over 150+ stage shows, 35+ artistic creative productions, and an 'Indian Book of Records' recognition for a one-man play—gradually transformed into a mission that reached far beyond the spotlight. As I stepped into classrooms and rehearsal halls, I began to see the true magic of the performing arts. Not just in the applause, but in the transformation of students: their growing confidence, their ability to express, to collaborate, to listen, and to lead. It became clear that art was not just for the stage. It was for life. Over the years, I've had the privilege of working with more than 40 schools as a theatre teacher, show director, and project manager, directing 50+ large-scale 'Dance-Drama' productions at ASDA International. From Nalapad Academy to TCIS, RMS International to Chaman Bhartiya, I've watched students from diverse backgrounds step out of their comfort zones and into their strength-finding voices they never knew they possessed. At Jagali Artspace, we don't treat performing arts as an 'extra'. We treat it as essential. Because a child who learns to express on stage learns to express in life — with clarity, confidence, and compassion. They learn the value of discipline, empathy, storytelling, and presence skills that echo far beyond the auditorium.

This isn't just my career.

It's my commitment, my way of life — nurturing fearless voices, creative minds, and expressive hearts, one performance at a time.
